The CPAF's key objective is to support promising practices that address known risk factors and are related to NCPC's priority crimes issues. Priority is given to projects that focus on individuals or groups with multiple risk factors. Capacity building, especially in Aboriginal communities, rural and/or remote areas, will be funded based on need, as part of a broader strategy to address specific risk factors or crimes. The CMP helps communities develop approaches to crime prevention and undertake activities that deal with the root causes of crime. Priorities are children, youth, and Aboriginal people.	1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8, 10
